The Ohioana Library contains more than 45,000 books by and about Ohioans and Ohio, 10,000 pieces of published Ohio music, and 20,000 biographical files on Ohio authors, composers, and other artists, in addition to various special Ohio collections.

Library Hours: The library is open to the public from 8:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M., Monday through Friday (except holidays). Our collection is non-circulating, and materials may be used in the library. The staff also answers questions by mail, telephone (614-466-3831), or e-mail: ohioana@ohioana.org

Submitting Books: Writers born in Ohio or writers who have lived in Ohio for five years or more are invited to submit their books to our collection. Please send two copies of your book(s) to the address above. One becomes part of our permanent collection, and the other is used for annotation and possible review in the Ohioana Quarterly. PLEASE NOTE: due to the prohibitive cost of accessioning and cataloging, we can no longer accept self-published or otherwise author-subsidized books.
