Corrections

*In "Ohioana: An Historic Timeline," (page 14, Fall 2009 Ohioana Quarterly) we mentioned that Ohioana's first Career Award was awarded to James "Scotty" Reston in 1942. Mr. Reston was awarded Ohioana's first award, which was a book award. The first Career Award was given in 1943 to Edgar Stillman Kelley. Also, in 1977, James P. Barry (not Barrey) was appointed director of Ohioana.

*In the list of Ohioana's former Marvin Grant Winners (page 29, Fall 2009 Ohioana Quarterly), Anthony Doerr's name is misspelled. Also, the Ohioana Marvin Grant was awarded every two years from its establishment in 1982 until 1998. Thanks to the support of Beulah Appleton, who added to the endowment, we have been able to offer the grant each year. The list of grant winners is only a selected few, for a complete list, please visit www.ohioana.org/awards.
