DEADLINE: December 31, 2016

Established in 1942, the Ohioana Book Awards recognize Ohio authors for outstanding books published each year in the categories of Fiction, Nonfiction, Juvenile Literature, Middle Grade/Young Adult Literature, Poetry, and Books about Ohio or an Ohioan.

CRITERIA

- Any book of general interest that has been written or edited by a person born in Ohio or who has lived in Ohio for at least five years, with the exception of a "Book about Ohio or an Ohioan," which may be authored by a non-Ohioan.
- Any book considered for an award must be received by the Ohioana Library during the calendar year prior to the year the award is given and must have a copyright date within the last two calendar years. A book is ordinarily considered only once for an award.
- Books shall be judged by their literary merit and the overall importance of the work. Juvenile books will be judged by the same criteria, plus appeal to the intended audience of children or young adults.
